- 8.6 If the Employer and the Employee meet to discuss an individual flexibility arrangement, then the Employee may be accompanied by a representative of the Employee's choice.

Part 2— Consultation and Dispute Resolution

9. Consultation

- 9.1 This clause applies if:
- (a) the Employer has made a definite decision to introduce a major change to production, program, organisation, structure, or technology in relation to its workplace that is likely to have a significant effect on Employees; or
 - (b) proposes to introduce a change to the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of Employees.

Consultation regarding major workplace change

- 9.2 For a major change referred to in cl.9.1(a):
- (a) the Employer must notify the relevant Employees of the decision to introduce the major change; and
 - (b) cl.9.3 to 9.8 apply.

9.3 The relevant Employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

9.4 If:

- (a) a relevant Employee appoints, or relevant Employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation; and
- (b) the Employee or Employees advise the Employer of the identity of the representative;

the Employer must recognise the representative.

9.5 As soon as practicable after making its decision, the Employer must:

- (a) discuss with the relevant Employees:
 - (i) the introduction of the change; and
 - (ii) the effect the change is likely to have on the Employees; and
 - (iii) measures the Employer is taking to avert or mitigate the adverse effect of the change on the Employees; and
- (b) for the purposes of the discussion — provide, in writing, to the relevant Employees:
 - (i) all relevant information about the change including the nature of the change proposed; and
 - (ii) information about the expected effects of the change on the Employees; and
 - (iii) any other matters likely to affect the Employees.

9.6 However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

9.7 The Employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the major change by the relevant Employees.

9.8 If a clause in this Agreement provides for a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to the enterprise of the Employer, the requirements set out in cll. 9.2(a), 9.3 and 9.5 are taken not to apply.

9.9 In this clause, a major change is likely to have a significant effect on Employees if it results in:

- (a) the termination of the employment of Employees; or
- (b) major change to the composition, operation or size of the Employer's workforce or to the skills required of Employees; or
- (c) the elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including opportunities for promotion or tenure); or
- (d) the alteration of hours of work; or

- (e) the need to retrain Employees; or
- (f) the need to relocate Employees to another workplace; or
- (g) the restructuring of jobs.

Consultation about changes to regular roster or hours of work

9.10 For a change referred to in cl.9.1(b):

- (a) the Employer must notify the relevant Employees of the proposed change; and
- (b) cl.9.11 to 9.15 apply.

9.11 The relevant Employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

9.12 If:

- (a) a relevant Employee appoints, or relevant Employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation, and
- (b) the Employee or Employees advise the Employer of the identity of the representative,

the Employer must recognise the representative.

9.13 The Employer must:

- (a) discuss with the relevant Employees the introduction of the change; and
- (b) for the purposes of the discussion, provide to the relevant Employees:
 - (i) information about the proposed change (for example, information about the nature of the change to the Employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work and when that change is proposed to commence); and
 - (ii) information about what the Employer reasonably believes will be the effects of the change on the Employees; and
 - (iii) information about any other matters that the Employer reasonably believes are likely to affect the Employees; and
- (c) invite the relevant Employees to give their views about the impact of the change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities).

9.14 However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

9.15 The Employer must give genuine consideration to matters raised about the change by the relevant Employees.

9.16 For the purposes of cl.9.11 to 9.15, the Employer's educational timetable in respect of academic classes and student activities, which:

- (a) may operate on a term, semester, or a School year basis, and

- (b) ordinarily changes between one period of operation and the next, and
- (c) may change during the period of operation, is not a regular roster.

9.17 However, where a change to the Employer's educational timetable directly results in a change:

- (a) to the number of ordinary hours of work of an Employee, or
- (b) to the spread of hours over which the Employee's ordinary hours are required to be worked, or
- (c) to the days over which the Employee is required to work, then cl.9.11 to cl.9.15 will apply.

In this clause:

relevant Employees means the Employees who may be affected by a change referred to in cl.9.1.

10. Dispute resolution

10.1 If a dispute relates to:

- (a) a matter arising under the Agreement, or
- (b) the NES,

this clause sets out procedures to settle the dispute.

10.2 An Employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

10.3 In the first instance, the parties to the dispute must try to resolve the dispute at the workplace level, by discussions between the Employee or Employees and relevant supervisors and/or management.

10.4 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the FWC.

10.5 The FWC may deal with the dispute in two stages:

- (a) the FWC will first attempt to resolve the dispute using one or more of the following methods: mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion and making a recommendation; and
- (b) if the FWC is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, the FWC may then:
 - (i) arbitrate the dispute; and
 - (ii) make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Note: If the FWC arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act. A decision that the FWC makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Division 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.

- 10.6 In limiting the operation of cl.10.5, if the dispute is about any matter not related to the NES, both parties will need to consent prior to arbitration. Provided the steps in cll.10.3 and 10.5(a) have been applied, neither party will unreasonably withhold consent.
- 10.7 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this clause:
- (a) an Employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety; and
 - (b) an Employee must comply with a direction given by the Employer to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:
 - (i) the work is not safe; or
 - (ii) the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 (Vic) would not permit the work to be performed; or
 - (iii) there are other reasonable grounds for the Employee to refuse to comply with the direction.
- 10.8 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by the FWC in accordance with this clause, save for appeal rights.

11. Consultative Committee

11.1 It is acknowledged that the overall purpose of consultation is to provide an environment for communication about matters that affect Employees and in doing so, establish a consultative mechanism to support communication. It shall not normally discuss individual matters or grievances except in confidence where it is agreed that these matters are representative of broader issues. It could consider, for example, teaching workload issues, professional development and facilities.

11.2 Definition of consultation

- (a) For the purpose of consultation under this clause, the following definition is adopted:
 - (i) "Consultation is not perfunctory advice on what is about to happen. This is a common misconception. Consultation is providing the individual, or other relevant persons with a bona fide opportunity to influence the decision maker...Consultation is not joint decision-making or even a negative or frustrating barrier to the prerogative of management to make decisions. Consultation allows the decision-making process to be informed, particularly as it may affect the employment prospects of individuals" (Smith, C. in CPSU, the Community and Public Sector Union v Vodafone Network Pty Ltd (Print PR911257), paragraph 25).

- (b) A Teachers Staff Consultative Committee shall, comprise:
 - (i) the Principal or the Principal's nominee;
 - (ii) two additional nominees of the Principal;

- (c) The Teachers Staff Consultative Committee may make recommendations to the Principal in respect of the matters of relevance to Teachers.
- (d) The Teachers Staff Consultative Committee acknowledges that the final decision making remains the prerogative of the Board, as exercised through the Principal of the College.
- (e) The appointed and elected members of the Teachers Staff Consultative Committee shall establish in writing the:
 - (i) role and functions of the Teachers Staff Consultative Committee, including consulting on matters referred by the Staff Associations of the Senior and Junior School;
 - (ii) the processes associated with calling a meeting, which may be at the request of the Principal or not less than two elected members of the Teachers Staff Consultative Committee;
 - (iii) the number of meetings to be scheduled during a School year, but at most two meetings per term, unless the majority of members agree to additional meetings, if required;
 - (iv) administrative processes such as the development of agendas, notice of meetings, timing of meetings, preparation and circulation of meeting notes, confidentiality requirements, etc.,
 - (v) mechanisms for feedback to other Teachers.
- (f) The Chief of Staff position in the Senior School will continue to play a key role in consultation and feedback directly with the school leadership. The Teachers Staff Consultative Committee will not replace any elements of that role.

- (c) A part-time Employee and the Employer may agree to vary the time fraction or days of attendance by mutual consent. The Employer will first discuss the proposed variation with the Employee with the aim of reaching an agreed time fraction and pattern of attendance that is mutually advantageous to the Employee and the College.
- (d) Where the time fraction or days of attendance are contracted by a letter of appointment, the Employer will implement the relevant procedure under cl.9 - Consultation.

Should an Employee not nominate a complying superannuation fund, a request for stapled superannuation fund details will be made to the ATO. If the Employer is advised by the ATO that the Employee does not have a stapled superannuation fund, the Employer's default superannuation fund applies. The Employer's default fund is Victorian Independent Schools Superannuation Fund or its successor fund.

- (b) The rights and obligations in these clauses supplement those in superannuation legislation.

24.2 Employer contributions

- (a) The Employer must make such superannuation contributions to a superannuation fund for the benefit of an Employee as will avoid the Employer being required to pay the superannuation guarantee charge under superannuation legislation with respect to that Employee. - (b) the consequences for the Employee if changes in working arrangements are not made; and
- (c) any reasonable business grounds for refusing the request.

Note 1: The Employer must give the Employee a written response to an Employee's s.65 request within 21 days, stating whether the Employer grants or refuses the request (s.65(4)).

Note 2: If the Employer refuses the request, the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal (s.65(6)).

25.3 If the Employer refuses the request and has not reached an agreement with the Employee under clause 25.2:

- 26.1 This clause provides for enterprise specific detail and supplements the NES that deals with maximum weekly hours.
- 26.2 The ordinary hours of an Employee are 38 hours per week averaged over a 12-month period. The averaging period will be the School Year. Where an Employee is employed for part only of a School Year, averaging will be over the period of employment in that School Year.
- 26.3 In addition, an Employee is required to work such reasonable additional hours as are necessary to perform the Employee's duties
- 26.4 The ordinary hours of work for an Employee during term weeks are variable. In return, an Employee is not generally required to attend when the students are not present, subject to the needs of the Employer with regard to professional development, student free days and other activities requiring the Employee's attendance.
- 26.5 An exception to cl.25.4 is where an Employee appointed to the position of Senior Manager (or equivalent) and in receipt of a Senior Manager's allowance negotiates different attendance arrangements.

- 26.7 The Employer will determine the ordinary full-time face-to-face teaching hours per week and the professional duties to be allocated to the Employee.

- 26.8 An Employee is not required to attend the College during non-term weeks, but is required to perform such professional duties as being reasonably necessary to enable the proper performance of the Employee's role. The Employee's role is defined by the Employer.
- 26.9 Non-term weeks will not be less than the periods of time designated as School Holidays in Victorian Government Schools. The typical School Year has from 186 to 192 teaching days (including staff days, excluding public holidays during term time). If, in the future, government regulation of schools and/or government funding becomes linked to the number of student attendance days, then the number of teaching days in the School Year will increase in accordance with the government regulations and/or funding requirements.
- 26.10 In usual circumstances, the Employer will provide written notice of the term weeks and days in non-term weeks in which the Employees are required to attend, for the following School Year by 30 June of each School Year.
- 26.11 The annual salary and any applicable allowances payable are paid in full satisfaction of an Employee's entitlements for the School Year or a proportion of the School Year. The Employee's absence from school during Non-term weeks is deemed to include their entitlement to annual leave, in accordance with cl. 29.2.
- 26.12 The College will endeavour to distribute workloads equitably and ensure that no Teacher, full or part-time, shall be required to perform an unfair, unreasonable or excessive workload. For the purposes of determining a Teacher's workload, whether it be full or part-time, documentation evidencing curricular, co-curricular, timetabling and professional development activities may be taken into account.

27. Graduates and mentors

A graduate Teacher and their mentor will be afforded sufficient support during the School Year, with a reduction of duties or hours of face-to-face teaching time, where the Principal believes such a reduction to be relevant.

28. Breaks

- 29.2 The College requires employees to participate in the annual staff development process to encourage regular feedback and reflection, and participate in professional learning opportunities to guide professional growth and career development.

30. Professional practice time

- 30.1 A full-time teacher will be provided through the Professional Development application process and in consultation with the Principal, up to 15 hours of release time (pro-rata for part time teachers) over the school year, to focus on the improved delivery of high-quality teaching and learning.
- 30.2 Work done in that time will ideally be collaborative, and may include networking with colleagues in other schools. Work done in that time will be relevant to improve the delivery of the curriculum, be consistent with school priorities and selected from the following:
- (a) planning and preparation
 - (b) strategic planning
 - (c) curriculum development
 - (d) assessment moderation
 - (e) professional learning.
- 30.3 The timing and the focus of the time release will require the approval of the Principal. This provision is an addition to existing professional development processes.
- 30.4 One full working day equates to 7.6 hours.

Part 6— Leave and Public Holidays

31. Annual leave

- 31.1 Annual leave is provided for in the NES. This clause supplements the NES provisions.
- 31.2 Timing of annual leave

An Employee must take annual leave during Non-term weeks. Leave must generally be taken, in the case of an Employee whose employment with the employer is continuing into the next school or preschool year, in the four-week period immediately following the final term week of the current school or preschool year, unless otherwise agreed with the Employer.

31.3 Crediting of annual leave

An Employee may take annual leave re-credited in accordance with the NES only during Non-term weeks as directed by the Employer.

32. Pro rata payment of salary inclusive of annual leave

- 32.1 This clause provides enterprise specific detail and incorporates the NES entitlement with respect to annual leave.

32.2 The provisions of this clause will apply:

- (a) in the calculation of payment in regard to pro rata salary where an Employee's employment ceases; or
- (b) in the calculation of payment in regard to pro rata salary if:
 - (i) an Employee commenced employment after the school service date;
 - (ii) an Employee has taken leave without pay of more than two term weeks since the school service date; or
 - (iii) the hours which an Employee has worked at school have varied since the school service date.

32.3 Termination of employment

An Employee will be entitled on termination of employment to a payment calculated in accordance with this clause.

32.4 Employees who commence employment after the commencement of the school year

An Employee who commences employment after the usual date of commencement in any school year, will be paid from the date the Employee commences, provided the Employee must be paid an amount calculated pursuant to this clause at the end of the school year and will not receive any salary or other payment until the commencement of the next school year.

32.5 Employees who take approved leave without pay

Where an Employee takes approved leave without pay for a period which (in total) exceeds more than two term weeks in any year, the Employee will be paid an amount calculated in accordance with this clause as follows:

- (a) if the leave without pay commences and concludes in the same school year, the payment will be calculated and made at the conclusion of the last school term or final semester in that year; and
- (b) if the leave without pay is to conclude in a school year following the school year in which the leave commenced:
 - (i) at the commencement of the leave, a payment will be calculated and made in respect of the school year in which the leave commences; or
 - (ii) at the end of the last school term or final semester in that year in which the leave concludes, a payment will be calculated and made in respect of that school year.

If the Employee returns early from leave any payment under this clause will be taken into account in calculating the amount owed to the Employee at the end of the last school term in that year.

32.6 Calculation of payments

$$P = \frac{(s \times c) - d}{b}$$ p is the payment due s is the total salary paid in respect of Term weeks worked, or part thereof, since the school service date or the date of employment in circumstances where the Employee has been employed by the Employer since the school service date.

b is the number of Term weeks, or part thereof in the School Year

c is the number of non-term weeks, or part thereof, in the School Year

d is the salary paid in respect of Non-term weeks, or part thereof, that have occurred since the school service date or date of employment in circumstances where the Employee has been employed by the Employer since the school service date

32.7 For the purpose of this clause:

(a) school service date means the date from which Employees are paid at the commencement of the School Year in their first year of service with the Employer; and

(b) Employee means an Employee other than a casual Employee.

(c) Any period of paid birth or adoption related leave is not included in the calculation of 's' or 'd' in this formula.

32.8 The formula in cl.30.6 is intended to be used to calculate the pro rata salary inclusive of annual leave owing to an Employee in respect of the School Year in which the formula is applied.

33. Annual leave loading

33.1 This clause provides for enterprise specific detail and supplements the NES that deals with annual leave.

33.2 An Employee who has served throughout the School Year is entitled to a leave loading of 17.5% on four weeks' annual leave. The loading will normally be paid:

(a) as a lump sum with the December salary payment; or

(b) on the termination of employment by either party.

33.3 Leave loading is to be calculated using the following formula:

[Weekly salary x 4 x 17.5%] x Term weeks worked by the Employee in that School Year

34. Personal/carer's leave

34.1 Personal/carer's leave is as provided for in the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

34.2 An Employee other than a casual Employee is entitled to a paid personal/carer's leave entitlement, which includes both sick and carer's leave.

34.3 For a full-time Employee, the personal/carer's leave entitlement equates to 15 days per year of service, which accrues progressively during the year of service according to the Employee's ordinary hours of work. A part-time Employee is entitled to paid personal/carer's leave on a pro rata basis based on their ordinary hours of work.

34.4 Where a full-time Employee requires personal/carer's leave in excess of the Employee's accrued entitlement, the Employee is entitled to be paid personal/carer's leave in advance of accrual as follows:

- (a) six (6) days during the first term of employment, and a further three (3) days during each of the next three terms, if in the first year of employment with the Employer, and
- (b) up to the annual entitlement of 15 days, if in the second or subsequent year of employment, provided that the notice and evidentiary requirements are met.

34.5 Paid sick leave is taken due to a personal illness or injury.

38.2 Substitution of public holidays

The Employer and an individual Employee may agree on the substitution of a day or a part-day for a day or part-day that would otherwise be a public holiday.

39. Long service leave

39.1 Long service leave is provided for in the NES. This clause supplements the NES provisions.

39.2 An Employee is entitled to long service leave of:

- (a) thirteen (13) weeks upon the completion of fifteen (15) years of continuous employment ('initial entitlement') for any period of employment commencing on or after 1 January 1965 and ending on 1 January 1980,
- (b) thirteen (13) weeks upon the completion of ten (10) years of continuous employment ('initial entitlement') for any period of employment commencing after 1 January 1980. An Employee is entitled to an additional six and a half (6.5) weeks' long service leave for each additional five (5) years of continuous employment ('subsequent entitlement/s') with the Employer.

39.3 Accrued long service leave will be paid in lieu where an Employee's employment is terminated after seven years of continuous employment for any reason.

39.4 An Employee may take pro rata long service leave after the completion of seven (7) years of continuous employment. For a full-time Employee, this will equate to a pro rata entitlement to 9.1 weeks' long service leave.

39.7 Illness during long service leave

Subject to the production of a supporting medical certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner, an Employee who becomes ill whilst on long service leave is entitled to have the period of illness treated as personal/carer's leave but only to the extent that the Employee is entitled to personal/carer's leave.

39.8 Subject to cl.37.7, the Employee's long service leave will be extended by the period of illness.

39.9 An exception to cl.37.8 is that the Employer and an Employee may agree that the Employee will return from long service leave as planned with the period of illness increasing the Employee's accrued long service leave entitlement.

39.10 Timing and taking of long service leave

(a) The initial entitlement to long service leave falls due for taking upon the completion of ten (10) years of continuous employment and the subsequent entitlement to long service leave falls due for taking upon the completion of each subsequent five years of continuous employment. An Employee must take the initial entitlement and each subsequent entitlement in full, or as close as possible to in full, before a subsequent entitlement to long service leave falls due.

(b) Where an Employee applies to take less than the initial entitlement in full, the period of long service leave to be taken will usually be for not less than one full term. An Employee may request a period of Long Service Leave shorter than a term, but not less than one day at full pay, which will be considered by the Principal on a case-by-case basis, taking into account the College's needs and the Employee's request.

(c) The timing of taking of long service leave will be negotiated between the Principal and the Employee for mutual advantage.

(d) An Employee may request to hold over a minor portion of accrued long service leave as a subsequent entitlement falls due which will be considered by the Principal on a case-by-case basis, taking into account the College's needs and the Employee's request.

39.11 Where an Employee has not accrued sufficient leave to cover a full term the Employer may grant a period of leave without pay in conjunction with the period of long service leave. The granting of leave without pay in these circumstances will be at the discretion of the Employer.

39.12 Long service leave at half pay

(a) An Employee may request an amount of long service leave –

(i) twice as long as the amount to which the Employee would otherwise be entitled; and

(ii) at a rate of pay equal to half the Employee's ordinary pay;

provided that the Employee takes not less than one full term of long service leave over two consecutive terms.

(b) The Employer must grant a request under cl.37.12(a) if it is reasonable to do so having regard to the needs of the Employee and the needs of the Employer's business.

- (c) Notwithstanding cl.37.12(a) and 37.12(b), an application for long service leave of less than two consecutive full terms at half pay may be granted at the discretion of the Principal where there are special circumstances.

40. Parental leave

40.1 Parental leave is provided for in the NES at Division 5, sections 67 to 85 of the Act. This clause supplements the NES provisions.

40.2 Definition

For the purpose of this clause:

Continuous service means service with the Employer during the whole of the period including any period of authorised leave. For a casual Employee, continuous service means a period during which the Employee was engaged on a regular and systematic basis by the Employer during the 12-month period immediately preceding the date or expected date of birth of the child or the day of placement or expected day of placement of the child, and the Employee would have had a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by the Employer on a regular and systematic basis.

40.3 Increase in entitlements

- (a) An Employee is entitled to up to 24 months' unpaid parental leave in accordance with sections 70 and 76 of the Act, where the Employee has or will have responsibility for the care of a child. The 24-month period of leave is an automatic entitlement and represents the period of leave available to an Employee couple under sections 70 and 76 of the Act. To avoid any doubt, 24 months is the total amount of unpaid parental leave which can be taken unless the Employee and the Employer agree to extend the period of leave beyond 24 months.
- (b) An Employee, who is entitled to unpaid concurrent parental leave under section 72 of the Act has an entitlement to eight weeks' unpaid leave which counts as service for the purposes of accruing annual leave, personal/carer's leave and long service leave.

40.4 Variation of period of parental leave

- (a) Subject to the relevant provisions of the NES, the period of parental leave may be shortened by written agreement between the Employer and the Employee.
- (b) Subject to the relevant provisions of the NES, where an Employee has commenced a period of parental leave of up to 52 weeks, the Employee:
- (i) may extend the period of parental leave once by giving the Employer four (4) weeks' written notice before the end of the period stating the period by which the leave is extended; and
 - (ii) may further extend the period of parental leave by agreement with the Employer.

40.5 Where an Employee elects to take a period of parental leave greater than 52 weeks but less than 104 weeks and wishes to extend this period up to a maximum of 104 weeks the Employer requires the Employee to notify of his/her intention to extend the period of parental leave at least ten (10) weeks prior to the expiration of the initial period leave.

40.6 A period of unpaid parental leave does not break the Employee's continuity of employment but it does not count as continuous service.

40.7 An Employee may in conjunction with parental leave pursuant to this clause access any annual leave or long service leave entitlements, which the Employee has accrued subject to the total amount not exceeding 24 months. Such paid leave cannot be taken concurrently with leave pursuant to clause 38 – Paid parental leave.

40.8 Request to return part-time after Parental Leave

The NES sets out an Employee's right to request part-time employment on return from birth-related or adoption-related parental leave. This is set out in Division 4, Section 65 of the NES. A request for part-time employment will be considered by the Employer in accordance with this.

- (b) Ordinarily, the maximum amount of unpaid leave for an employee with less than 12 months continuous service shall be two full School terms. An employee may request a period of birth-related leave longer than two full School terms, which will be considered by the Principal on a case-by case basis, taking into account the College's needs and the employee's request.

- (c) An Employee, who has completed at least 12 months' continuous service with the Employer as at the date or the expected date of birth of the Employee's child, is entitled to be paid for the first 16 weeks of birth-related leave after the birth of the child that would otherwise have been unpaid leave at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay provided the Employee is responsible for the care of the child and takes not less than 16 weeks of birth-related leave. If an Employee takes the full entitlement of 16 weeks paid parental leave, then the Employee will accrue a period of 1.23 weeks of annual leave to be taken during non-term weeks.
- (d) If the Employee's birth-related leave includes a period with less than 16 weeks during term weeks, the Employee's entitlement to paid parental leave will be equal to the number of weeks of leave taken during term weeks.
- (e) An Employee must have completed a minimum of 12 months' continuous service after returning from parental leave before being eligible for a payment pursuant to this clause for the birth or adoption of a second or subsequent child.

41.3 Paid adoption-related leave

- (a) An Employee, who has completed at least 12 months' continuous service with the Employer as at the date or the expected date of placement of a child with the Employee, is entitled to be paid for the first 16 weeks of adoption-related leave after the placement of the child with the Employee at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay provided the Employee is responsible for the care of the child and takes not less than 16 weeks of adoption-related leave. If an Employee takes the full entitlement of 16 weeks paid parental leave, then the Employee will accrue a period of 1.23 weeks of annual leave to taken during non-term weeks.
- (b) If the Employee's adoption-related leave includes a period with less than 16 weeks during term weeks, the Employee's entitlement to paid parental leave will be equal to the number of weeks of leave taken during term weeks.
- (c) An Employee must have completed a minimum of 12 months' continuous service, if returning from parental leave, before being eligible for a payment pursuant to this clause for the adoption or birth of a second or subsequent child.

41.4 Paid partner leave

The Employer may grant a payment equal to two weeks' pay at the ordinary rate of pay to an Employee who takes concurrent unpaid leave of at least two weeks from the NES concurrent leave entitlement of eight weeks, which may be taken during the first 12 months following the birth or adoption of a child.

42. Leave without pay

An Employee may apply for leave without pay, which may be granted at the discretion of the Principal.
